

Decade of Centenaries Bursary 2023

Name	Title of research project	Amount
Alan Noonan	Mapping Cork safe houses during the war of independence.	3,697
Angus Mitchell	The hill of Uisneach and the struggle for Irish independence (1906-1928).	4,641
Brian Hughes	Oral history of the Royal Irish Constabulary.	4,377
Dawn-Miranda Sherratt Bado	The war has caught us up' - a cultural history of the Irish Revolution through women's writing.	9,871
Fiona Brennan	Upstaging a revolution' the amateur dramatic movement in Co. Kerry 1923-1936, deflecting from and reflecting upon the revolutionary period.	3,139
Istvan Laszlo	Interactive monuments in the digitally mediated city.	500
John Biggins	Life in the Dáil Courts	4,790
Liam Heffron	The local unionist experience of the Irish Civil War in North Mayo.	8,879
Máire McCafferty	Language beyond borders - the relationship between Coláiste Bhríde, Ranafast, and the Irish language movement in Northern Ireland during the 1920s.	5,417
Marie Lynch	A decade of disturbance - the impact of revolution and civil war on presentations of mental illness to Ireland's oldest psychiatric hospital.	1,000
Michael Doorley	Dr Patrick McCartan: a revolutionary envoy.	4,259
Michael Loughman	A Wexford family sundered: the Ryans of Tomcoole and the Irish Civil War	858
Noel Carolan	Dread story of famine-ghastly state of Connemara' The early Irish Free State and food supply crisis in 1922 and 1925.	669
Patirick Mulroe	A profile of border internees in Northern Ireland, 1922.	2,500
Patrick O'Brien	The Irish tax man cometh: building the tax system in the Irish Free State, 1923-1925.	658
Peter Connell	Housing conditions in provincial towns and the 1922 million pound housing scheme.	3,050
Richard McElligott	Echoes of war -the everyday legacy of the Civil War in North Kerry 1923-1934.	6,565
Ruth McManus	Housing the people, building the state - the community legacy of 1920s Free State housing policy.	7,200
Shane Ryan	Similar beginnings, alternative paths/	1,000
Terence Dunne	Surviving the revolution.	6,973